

Whichway!

We are SO excited to have the new Chrissy's Island Family website up and running. We hope you like it!

It's been a really busy time for Chrissy. Chrissy and her Tropical Island Blue friends have been singing and dancing up a storm all over this big wide country of ours. It has been heaps of fun with lots of adventure. Next year Chrissy is hoping to see more of you mob but she needs to make sure she has lots of time for her school work, looking after her Grandma and playing with Samu, Waru and Sisi. Chrissy is hoping to see you fella's real soon!

When Chrissy's Island Family was nominated for a 2008 Deadly Award for Best new album, Chrissy got so excited she rang her sister girl Christine Anu to tell her the news. Chrissy and Christine are heading back into the recording studio to cook up some deadly new tunes for a new album to be released in 2009. Chrissy is so excited to be working with tidda girl again.... She is a crack up :-)

Keep watching this page for more news on Chrissy and her Tropical Island Blue friends.
